Madison told the Recorder, "Twe been away before,"

His record showed that he was first seen to state Prison in 1874 and remained there two years and a half. Since then he has served several long terms for various offenses.

"Why don't you reform?" the venerable Recorder asked the old man.

"What's the use?" was the reply, 'Tm too old to work and prison is the best place for me."

Mudison was remanded to the Tombs uptil Friday for sentence.
